

THE MICHIGAN JEWISH SPORTS FOUNDATION

BEYOND THE GAME: A NIGHT OF SPORTS TALK

We are asking you to help Students Succeed

The Dr. Steven (Z"l) and Evelyn Rosen Stars of Tomorrow Scholarship is a one-of-a-kind, college tuition scholarship designed to assist Jewish high school seniors who have dedicated themselves to achieving outstanding academics while also competing at the highest athletic level. Criteria includes: financial need, athletic and academic achievement, record of community service, and extra-curricular activities.

The Scholarship program strives to build athletes for today's competitive and academic environment. While not every athlete will make it to the big leagues, all who are recognized will have shown the passion and promise that personifies members of the Michigan Jewish Sports Hall of Fame. All sponsorship donations help with university tuition of Jewish student athletes.

The goal is to help develop Jewish athletes, through scholarships, and inspire these athletes who will, ultimately, personify the tradition and legacy of Jewish athletics as role models in the community. For the past two years, the Michigan Jewish Sports Foundation has held a high caliber sports panel hosted by Michael "Stoney" Stone of WXYT 97.1 The Ticket. Panelists have included: Arn Tellem, Vice Chairman of Palace Sports & Entertainment; Bob Quinn, Detroit Lions General Manager; George Blaha, Play-by-Play Detroit Pistons and MSU football; Jim Brandstatter, Play-by-Play Detroit Lions and Michigan football; Ken Daniels, Play-by-Play Detroit Red Wings; and Kevin Poston CEO, President, sports agent, THE DEAL.
